Employee Handbook – Lays out the Rules

Studies show fair and clear employment policies equal motivated workers. We have developed a bilingual (English/Spanish) handbook just for dairies. It contains essential information to communicate to workers in a condensed easy to understand booklet. It protects you, the workers, and demonstrates your commitment to fair employment practices. It acts as layer of defense in combating harassment, discrimination, and wrongful termination claims as well. Start your handbook today! It's easy: request, review, consult, and print. More at <http://wafila.org/employeehandbook>.

Supervisor's Leadership Guide – Enforces, Coaches and Documents

This bilingual (English/Spanish), pocket sized booklet is a powerful tool for any supervisor. The notebook includes guidelines for best progressive discipline practices, encourages more effective personnel management, and the tear-out discipline notice provides both parties with a record of any corrective action. Additional blank pages also allow it to be used for documentation and note taking in the field. This tool works great in tandem with the Employee Handbook that explains the rules. The Supervisor's Guide enforces, coaches and documents. View guide contents and order today at <http://wafla.org/guidebook>.

Worker Onboarding Videos – Educational, Strategic, Motivational

These twelve-short educational, strategic, and motivational onboarding videos in Spanish really pack a punch to insulate your company, motivate workers, and communicate the rules. The short training sessions provide an informal communication channel for workers to ask questions. The onboarding series includes training videos on a thumb drive, and an instructional booklet for your staff, with the video scripts in English. Additional onsite, in-depth training of management and HR is available by our experienced staff. A modest investment in training materials and prevention is worth its weight in gold! Harassment Hotline – Protects Your Company & Employees

The comprehensive harassment hotline service is another layer of defense to lower your risk of a lawsuit. The hotline takes the drama out of reporting issues and demonstrates to employees that you want to solve legitimate problems and puts potential harassers on notice. Be the first to know about internal problems before the employee turns to an outside entity. The service includes double-sided durable posters and employee wallet cards in English/Spanish along with 3-minute harassment training videos (English/Spanish) for training new and returning employees. You also will receive a consultation to explain how the service works, instruction on how to distribute materials and conduct training, and how wafla can assist if an investigation is warranted. This service works well with the Employee Handbook product which explains harassment and discrimination and explains the proper procedures for reporting an incident. Protect your business from government fines. We can perform internal audits/inspections and instruct management and staff on best practices and corrective actions where needed. Wafla can also assist and guide you in the event you get a surprise government agency visit. We also provide a comprehensive investigation service if you become aware of discriminatory behavior or a complaint has been filed. Learn more <http://wafla.org/compliance>.

Unemployment Insurance Claims Management – Comprehensive Claims Management

We partnered with Integrated Claims Management (ICM), giving you the opportunity to save time and money by having ICM handle all your unemployment claims. We take care of the enrollment process and set a rate based on your recent Unemployment Insurance Tax Rate Notice. The service generally pays for itself by detailed claims management savings and then some, as well as relief from paperwork overload. Let ICM be the watchdog over your unemployment claims: handle your claims management, hearings, charge auditing and provide detailed reports. Ensure you only pay what you need to. Don't let questionable claims go uncontested and enjoy the security of having someone by your side throughout the process. Learn more at <http://wafla.org/uiclaimsmgmt>.
